from divers countries.

Aucverpe)

Collin,

From Venice,

The Turke,

and

The prince Dorla.

And how the Arch-duke of Austria is intended to selligne his Cardinal Hats through his matying with the King of Spainer daughter.

Stone and allowed.

Printed at London by Walconing Sizes and are to be fold in Guntous facette.

NEWES

from elucrs countri-

Spaine, Antwerpe, Coller, Conice, Rorae,

or and the state of the state o

Seeneand. To !.

- C - Caractions - Core are noted impley yelookand miss of - Talla Smooth Cuiting to 17 5 2 1.

Newes from Antwerp, the fifth day of Maic. 1597.

De Cardinall Archauke which is pet at Bzurets, hath (us it is reported) affemibled about 5000. men neere Calice and those parts to spoile the country, and it is thought likewise that in the end of this moneth himselfe will take the field with 6000. fighting men to attempt somewhat against the towne of Ostend whe.

ther the flates have feut five other entignes of footemen for the farther frengthning of that garrifon.

The flates hav of late intended to furpife Granelingibut the practile being difcouered, their men returned without perfour-ming any thing.

the are advertifed here by letters from Holland, of the arrivall there of lundy thips laben with bivers merchandizes, and flore of ready money, who report that the Englishmen having taken and lake the Bort of Saint Wartin, bid afterward fet it on fire with all the Chippes within the barbour.

On lunday the bodies of Saint Flavia Domicila and of S. Hereo and Archileo Romanes, were removed from the Church of S. Adzian to their owne Church, which is the title of Cardinal Baronio.

On munday a counsell was reller at Ponterauallo, inderein the Archmadute of Bellina was bestowed on a Sicilian. The Archbishop of Roan receined bis pall, and Carbinall Farnele propouuted a monasterye in the Ringdome of Arragon in Spaine.

Die Calchap the Carbinall Part Antonio Colona Departed this life, leaving for heire of all goods, the Lord Battin Colona bis nevbue.

On wendloop towards evening the Cardinall Celis & Ponlignor Bonuili gave commaundement to the Captaines which were appointed for Cungary, that an mundap next they house raule their louisiers to depart; whereupon certaine companies did yellerday let forward, and the fato Bonuili who doth likewife to morrow take his journey, but already lent his comillary to make promilion for the boyage.

The Spanith Agences brere are abuertifed by letters from Draghe, that the Admirall of Arragon bath publiched inthat court by ogder of the Catholike King, that the Laby Jufant of Spaine was maried to the Cardinall Arrhouke, and that the Emperour will religne the kingbome of Bobemia bato bim, as alfo that he Chalbe made king of Romanes, which is as murbeo Say as beire and luccello; in the Empire. Dibermile the Cathon like Maielly will not giue him any flate left be hould biminit the Crowne of Spaine, vuleffe perhaps be bellem on bim the Durchy of Briccaine having recovered it from the French, as a thing belonging to the Lady Infants mother. That the Carbi-· nall thall religne the Archbishoppieke of Colcoo to Archbuse Darimilian one of the brethren of the farince of Spaines bribe which thalbe. Tabo (as it is reported) muft be conneied to her bulband in Detober nert: byon the publifbing whereof the Em. ballabors of Clenice, the great Duke, and Bavop bid in their princes names bilite and gratulate the catholike kings ambal-

It is like wife reported, that the prince Doria his forney into Spaine, is to fetch the Kings baughter, and convey her into Italy, whence the fhalbe accompanied into flanders by the count of Juentes, who bath ogder to conduct ber to the cardinal Archivehe.

The other night there were fent from hence two Dispensations into spaine, the one whereby the kings vaughter may take to his bat bat is betrothed but him, who had this summer be connected to Barcellona by the prince Doria in his gally royall with other gallies to the number of 30, whither the said prince will come to receive ber.

The great buke biderflanding that the carbolike Ring wanted powder and other munition wherewith to furnish his couns on the fea coast of space and Portugall, especially at this time, because he feares they shalbe assaulted by the English sleete, his highnesse via therefore cause a ship to be laden with 20000, bar rels of powder and other ununition, which he sent into Spaine so a presence othe catholike maiestic: but the Florentines say that hee sent the saide inunition, to have therefore so much some graine. And the Zesuites which are lately come, reporte for a certainetie, that the saide ship is long since arruned at Allicante.

They write from Maples, that the viceroy hathbuilt 4. new gallies, wherewith, togither with other thippes he purpoleth to imbarke and carry into Spaine the third part of the footmen that were levied in that kingdome, and there should be levied another third bader the conduct of the marques of Trevilo.

They write from Florence, that the fort of Castelvit over-a-gainst Parliglia, boldes for the great Dutchesse in the French kings name, because the sais fort was taken by the soulviers of the other sortesse belowe which are kept there at the saive great buchesse cost, by whose order the ambassadour of Tuscane conferring with him of France on tuesday, told him that whatsoever was bone herein, was for the service of the most christian maiesse, and by the Duke of Guise his consent, which, perceiving that the captains of the saiv place had inteligence with the prince Poria sent post for him to Parliglia, that the soulviers might the more easily atchieve their enterprise.

30

ie ie

S.

to 1 nt

30

On thurleday the amballabous of Clenice and of the great D. were together with the Catholike Kings Agent by the fpace of foure boures in a chamber locked buto them, but it is not known what or whereon they treated.

Bere are news of the archbifbop of Siena big beath, who becealed in bis owne church, which place (it is thought) thall bee given to the carbinall Caruggi.

Newes from Antwerp the 14. of Maie. 1597.

The Carpinall Archbuke both what bee can to but an armie into the field; but through want of mony bis purpole goes flow. ly formard:neither is it pet knowne what enterprife the Spani. ards will make, fich the troups which were lent forth, are retur. ned buto their garrifons, which moueth fome to thinke that they will onely Grengthen and furnith the frontier-townes.

The forces which his bighnelle fent to fuccour Amiens, haue bone nothing, because they were not frong enough to withfand the french, who have entrenched themfelues not farre from the army where they remain, keeping good watch, and the Spanish boglemen in Arras appoynted to luccour Amiens, can finbe no meanes to enter the towne , lith all the pallages are flopt, and the fouldiers within the towne repoled fmall confidence in the Burgeffes, who begin to grow weary of perfourming the buetie of foulbiers.

The French men in the countrie of Lurembrough binber the D. of Divers so watch their opportunitie to worke, fome fpoile (and as the boice goeth) they will lay liege to barlam, not farre from Baffaque, if they be not preuented by colonell Berlotta, whome his birthelle bath fent into thole partes,

From Rome the 24. of the faid moneth.

Di wednesday towardes night there came a post from the Brince Doria, and beparted prefently to Maples to follicite the footmen, and brought word that the fair prince bid on the twenty: Dap day depart for Spaine, to fetch thence the kings baughter, and to conduct her into Italie: the which princelle (as it is reported) thall be entituled the Ameene of Bobemia, for the Emperone and his brethren have already graunted this title to the carbinal Archouke at the catholike Kings inclance; by whole meanes the faire Cardinal hall bee made King of the Romanes, through helpe of his voyce as king of Bobemia: and thal furthermore be confirmed in the gouernement of flaunders.

They write from Paples that the gallies of Sicilie hought eight great canons from Balermo, which (as it is thought) had be imployed in some attempt. That fire miles from the bauen a thip laden with come belonging to the Centurion of Genoa, was cast away, and therewith 100, marriners, 70, souldiers. That the 8000, sootemen which were levied in that kingdome, that meete neare to the said cittle to be imbarked in twenty gallies; and certaine ships and bessels which were made ready: and that there was order given sorthe levying of more men in the saide kingdome. They write from Sicilie, that there departed from Palermo soure shippes, laden with biskets, and sive more ready to depart laden like wise with biskets.

On wednesses morning a counsel was called at Montecanallo wherein was propounded by the cardinall of Aquaunia the church of Onarem under the principalitie of Berna, there was also propounded the bishoppicke of Cardona in Spaine in the behalfe of the bishop of Conia, and this must be propounded in the perfon of an other Spaniare.

The knight Comalo Comal, who was fent amballader into Spaine by the buke of Parma, is gone (they fay) to thanke his maiellie, for bauing given him a wife, and in varticular, one that is alied to the prince bis fome.

On faturday there came a post unto the Pope, fent to him from the cardinall Caruggi with newes, that hee had laboured and concluded a peace betweene the Dukes of Pantua and Parma: and therefore (far there) that these two princes wil perfonally meete each other at Rlegio in Lombardy where the said Cardinall, and the most excellent duke of Ferrara will bee prefent : which newes bath caules maruellous great top in this court.

On Sunnay there was an aburration of twelve men, whome they called heretikes, in S. Dinervaes church, where many carabinates were prefent: and it is reported, that of these twelves, three thall suffer beath, of which one is a florentime of the stocke of the Duzzi, who became he is coustant in his opinion, thall be burned aline, the other two first putte to death, and then burne, the rest condemned, some to the gallies, some to prison.

By letters from Spaine bearing date the 24. of April, and of the third of this pielent month, we are advertised that the agree-ment of the merchants was accorded on, because the king will give the laide merchants very good allignements after the rate of ten and an halfs processo for the olde parcell, and tourbing the new, he will pay them the one halfs prefently in ready mony, and for the reft will give very good allignes. It is also reported, that the Englishmen have wonne the Hand of laint Partha neare the Receive.

It is faire, that the promotions of the Carvinall at the french Kings requells that not be butill September of Christmas: and that carvinall Farnele that be fent amballador into Flanders to the carvinal Archbuke.

Pontignoz Bonuili beparted for Hungary on Clebnelbay: fo did also pefterday all the companies that were in Rome, by exper from the pope. The Cello Celli, and the cape ains Bilalone du Cele hal be made lergeants of one third a peece, bestees the companies which they have already. And of the horizonemente which hall be layed in these parts, seigning flaming Delsino is appointed to save charge.

Pewes likewife is brought that Porfignion Fabio Defino is arrived at laraghe to treate with the Emperour of very great and weightie affaires which are not openly knowen.

The carbinall Bandini is departed on his Legacie into Komania: And the carbinalles of Printi and Clerono are gone for Lorero to imbarke themselves in Ancona for Menice.

It is reported that the Cardinall Davilla is fet in the Congregation of the Councell and Gucuarra in that of the Wilhons.

By reason of the Bishop of Cattanaes beath , that feate is boide, and refts in the nomination of the Catholike king, pelbing 2; thousand crownes perely.

Že.

12

1

From Cullen the 19, of the fame moneth.

177 are bere advertised by letters from Bruxels, that the Carbinall Archouke bath renounced his bate in the Cathebrall Church with the accultomed ceremonies and that the Catholike Bing will both rause him to be make Bing of Bohemia by the Cimperoz and Dzinces Clecthis and bath alfo aftioned bim a perpetuall revenew of the Archbilhoppick of Toledo.

From Antwarpe, the 21. of Maye 1597.

They fay that the bing of France, with the Duke of Maine is come to Corbi hauring 60 perces of Artillerie. and that his Majestie hath called backe the Bossemen intich were about Amyens for mante of Come and other things, pet the fotemen are very well intrenched, neither is there any preparation made here as yet to fuccour the faid Tolnne.

They write from Amfterdim the 17. of this prefent moneth, that they have newes , that parte of the faid Svanish nete was arrived in Britaine : That Grave Maurice is Des parted from the Haghe with purpole to take the fielde, and that there are fundzie Shippes laben with Come come into Holland from divers partes, whereby the price is falme more more then a thirde parte.

From Coleine the 26. of the fame

The Spaniards are of late gone towards Berghe in certaine Wessels built on the Rhein, carrying with them great provision, and much store of poster, but it is not knowne what they purpose to attempt. There are also other Spaniards in the sielde in Gielderland.

knowne what they purpose to attempt. There are also other Spaniarus in the fictoe in Ciciberland.

They write out of France, that the Ring having now flerts and paide his Armie, want things A mices, his tipces every day encreasing; and there was little hope that the Carbinall could incrour the fait tolone, by reason of the great scarcitic of victuals through all Vicardie.

It was here reported, that the States Souldiers had in one Venlo in Gelberland, but that at the last they were repulled and beaten backe by the Mountainen.

It is faide for certaine, that the Pope's bolinette will be all meanes have the rents of all the offices for two moneths for the warres of Hungary, for which cause also it is thought that the people shall be charged with a certaine summe of money.

More twite from raims of Smior marco Farnele his artuall, who is twice for here, being fent by the Generall Alclobrandino, to informe the Pope what power the Emperour Chall have for his warre against the Enrice but some suppose that the said Lordes returne is for certaine discontentes.

It is here reported, that Don Iohn de media is gone to Casteldir with the great Dukes Gallets, and certaine ships laben with Munition, to assure altogether that fortresse, by building a new Forte in the Island of Cachastrasse, from Johence they may batter Casteldie. On Thursday these companies of couldiers bib all be parte on their fourney forwardes Hungarie, marching with great space, so that there is hope that they will shoully arine in those parts.

They write from Bologna, that Sinior Marco Pio, and Octanio Anogodro, camenere to the walles of the faide Cititie, and were discovered by the Courte as banished mentithey were pursued, but in vaine, for they saued themselves within the territorie of Ferrara, onely a Dentleman of their company in as taken and imprisoned.

Sinior Ottanio mallimi, who was kept in pailon by the Duke of Segni boon fulpition and icalonde of his diffe, being fet at libertie and on his journey tomarbes Rome, had fire Barquebusies discharged on him, about their miles on this the S. Fiora, one of which stroke him into the head.

inhereof be byed pacfently.

Dewes came on Pontag that the Carbinall of Saint Clemen, Legate in la marca d'Ancona, hath taken either aline or beab, all the Bandin which troubled that vicuince.

bignoz Cumillo Capizucchi wil bepart from bence to Campeanaister in the Chailtian Armie.

Carbinall Tanggi arrived this evening, being returned from Lombardie, who bath established a firme peace betweene the Dukes of Parma and Manna, and hath for some respects suspended as yet the enterview of the sayue Princes, but they have assigned their deputies, and there have passed letters betweene them so, confirmation there of. And it is reported, that amongst other things agreede on, this article is one: that all their former writings touching this matter shall be burnt.

On Thursday morning the aforesaive persons contemued for religion, were first beheaved in the tower of Nona, and afterward burned in Campo de Fiore. The other recanted all that they written or spoken against the Bope.

B 2 From

From Venice the 23 of Maye.

They write from Genca the tenth of this moneth, that two Galleys of Sauvye arrived there to toyne with the other, for the conneying of the Brince Doria into Spaine, with Sinior Gambacortas fotemen, which arrive dayly at the forde: and the voice goeth, that the layde Brince will not depart untill the comming of the Neapolitane lottemen for inhom he bath fent.

They write from Alba-Iulia the 14. of Aprill; that the two Chiaussi which were sent from the great Turke to the Prince, were dispatched back agains by his Pighness, who sent with them a Gentleman of his Court, on what assairs it is not knowne. That the Turkes have built a Bridge on the Kiver of Danuby, wherebyon some great burte is bombted. There was likewise reporte of a mightie Auge kish armie setting sorwarde, whereof his highness his specially advertise the Emperoz, counselling him to prepare for marre with all expedition.

They write allo from Vienna on the tenth of the same moneth, that there was made providion for warre, but not so throughly as were requisite. That they fortified certains Bastions there, the boyce still holding, that the Gardens and houses neare the walles thould be throwne do wone, and the Trenches enlarged. That 170, softenen of Strigonia being all Wallons and Italians, put to sight 1500. Turkish Horsemen in the Me of Strigonia, of subject number none escaped, the most parte perished in the water, which seemeth miraculous. That the Bores were still executed, and a hundrest more of them brought to Vienna, amongst whom were some of the chiefe.

They write from Craconia the third of this prefent mometh, that the Palatine of Chiquia did still persist in his confundacie, leaving Southiers, and preparing so warre of his otions authoritie: inhereby the King shall be constitution to die sorce against him, which may breeze some greater matter, but there is hope that the Estates will be mediators betweene them for the preventing of farther troubles. And there in no farther talks of his spaiestics tourney into Sucria, since the Palatine of Vilnas answere at the Barliament, to his Commissioners.

There are more certaine newes by letters from Conflammople, that Cicals was not called backe unto Porce. But contractivite that the great Turke bath appointed him to tarrie will at Argyrore, towardes which place a certaine number of Southers was to be fent to renew and frengthen the garrifons of those frontiers. The Persan having in paine demanded restitution of certaine forfreses, according to promise made in the articles of the peace: and therefore the boyce beld, that he purposed to take arms against the said gran Simor the great Turke, which entended not to make any cestitution at all. And that Mahomer Bassa was made Captaine generals of the armie in Hungarie.

There are ne wes from Turin by Letters, of the first of this present moneth, that the Duke of Sauove made presparation to passe the abountaines, so some as Mendoza Captaine of the Borsenne of Millame should in with him, and hath in the meane time sent a Barrison to Sula San Gens, (which is not taken by Digniere, as it was reported) and to other places. All which, not with standing some suppose that there is bope of prolonging the truce, although Dighera be in armes, and bath raised all Daulphine, Pronence, Aunerne, and other countries adjacent, baning like inife attempted to raile the Switzers.

There are farther newes brought from Vienna, that the aforefaid onerthrow of the Turkes at Srigonia, bath much encouraged the inhabitants both of the toper and lower Hungarie, which offer thindeluse with all personnels to performe their business against the concession of the performence of the concession of the performance of the concession of the concess

But others affirmed, that there is a treatic of peace; and that the Prince of Transmitted will be a sicolistic fectories them, which feemes to many a thing very builtely.

For to much as is yet knotone, the controveries betweene the Dukes of Parina title Marina are very well on termined, and through the biligence of Carolinill Targets, and the great wildome of the nind excellent Duke of fertales.

They write from reaghe bearing but the tenth of this present moneth, that Sonor Gio; Francisco Aldobrandino, bid on the same bay depart towardes Vienna with season Coaches, and that the Parquise of Borgari must thouttee follow him. And they had intelligence that the Larke having sent 6000. Janisaries to assure the passages through Transilvania, Moldania, and Valachia; the Transilvanians and Valachians toyning their sorces, had encountered and foilbe the first Squadron, in such sorte that seive escaped, and that they went sortwarde to serve the other Squadronia in sike manner. As also that the Bulgarians taking armes have bone some spoile onto the Lurkes.

There are letters sent from Rome, that the Carbinall Archouse hath renounced his Hatte butto the Bope, and his Archbishoppick of Toledo to Don Sacio de Valori Tube top to the Prince of Spaine, reserving to himselfe the pendion of a humbled thoughn Crownes, and that his Highenesse hath in Downe the allignments of Politicall, which amounteth to some humbles thousand Crownes with told the pretentions of the Julant lonighter to the bing of Systems bis spaint to the Boutche of Britaine.

at Olimo fire thousand factions, and the there arrived at Olimo fire thousand factions, and the thousand factions, and the thousand factions, and the thousand factions mentally allows to the same than the same th

It is also reported that the most excellent erouidierre Bendo having taken certains of the escertain and fent them to segme, they were prefently trulled by up: which in an en inent figure that the boule of Autria is willing to make all the letistation be may, to this most excellent state.

There came alle ho Last Arrides Borgonia Cup-beas rer to the Emperours Caieltie lent aout the lame matter, and being dispatched here be must passe presently to Elebine, to treat with that Duke, but uppon what assaires, it not as yet well knowne.

banen the Frenchmen from Cacaftras og cafflebit.

That the truce with Sanoy, was prolonged butill the the truck the money and the faire Duke had fent mother Gentleman to the most Christian king, it is not knowne wherefore.

That the knight Landriane was taken at Millan, and to Malia, for what cause, it is not knowne.

From Venicethe thirtith of May. 1597.

They write from Genoa the seventienth of this present winness of the arrival thete of source, Francesco de Vera Vera a bepariante, and of the benefits Maionoldi at Millane, which are to make them of the Estiam Spare, in the place of Brugnolo, who is chosen between of the Committee of Brugnolo, who is chosen between of the Committee that lane, as allowed the arrival of the Comen batto? To make down in the Make of Parmes Amballador, all which purpose to passe into Spam with the Wrince Dois , who bath licence from the Benate, and is gone to wardes posses and Loanogluboure on number, part her will bepart, there being already finding Salites lent to the further to take in the footners.

There were neines from Cremous, that they buter flow by letters from Millane, where there arrived a poste from Ly one, that the Sopuntarios have taken the topone of Maliors in Champaigne. But small create is given to these neines, with the lath letters from Millane doe mention such matter.

There came letters from Constantinople, bearing bate the seventeenth of the last moneth, that Cicala having so nallie cleared himselfe to the Sultane, should returne to Constantinople, and that it was likely be should be made thisse Title, it being also shought that her should be first Generall into himselfe, and that then the grand soignes twould not goe himselfe.

that there is a immerfall fearcitie, especialtic of beaftes.

That there are sundzie speeches and opinions touching the Armie, some supposing that onlie some sewe Gallies shall be sent south: 25ut if certaine articles betweene the grande Signoz and the Ling of France were agreed on, that then his Highnesse would send 70.02 80. Dallies to his agree.

That the report of the Catholique Binges proceedinges to preindice of the French kings Spatistie, todo tuned bispleasant, and that the great Lucke ivas desirous that the most Christian thing theinduracess the empirical constraint of the most Christian thing theinduracess the expitulations offered, that he might affect achieves thing by almomos possible. That upon Cyciles constitutes the great Curtic would go to Admopal to encourage his people, being encourage to distingue them tough by wonderful threates, they worse to distingue them tough by wonderful threates, they worse to distingue them to greater loss then they had used to the pears before. And that to make them the lease that he means to take the stell, the Islanders which is woont to be borne before him was again visplayd. That the Mullitumb other Papalsi consulting togister, had plainlie to be the grand soignor, that he shoulde not suffer himselfe to be ruled by the Sultan subich were herewith much offended.

He

0-

0

33

36

re

ľε

ne

to ملتا

te

E

to

De

of

na

es

he

m_

his

us

in

It is fignified by letters from Vienna, bearing date the 17. of this prefent moneth, that the Balla of Bolsina with a good number of Souldiours will lay flege to Capila, ere peding the grande Dignors power and the imperial Captaines baue now thought on fundate meanes for the refeus ing of that place. That the Turkes of Papa. Vefprino. Palotta.S. Martin and other places aftemble themfelnes at Jaurino, fcouring the plaines and making no account of our Forces . that on the day abone written the Generall Aldobrandino came to Vienna and was met by Archouse Mathias: that the sparquiffe of Borgari and Signoz Ferranti di Rolsi wil Mozelie likewife be there: that the Paince of Transplvanias wife was looked for, as also the Prince of Anich takich (they say) thall be made Archouke Maxienility & Lieutenants That the Francy branish bath oners throne arteen . thousand White and Tarfair of Valachia ant Moldivin.

They write from Twin of Mendozzas arrivall which they breat agoe to the Duke of Savoy if the Frenchmen Cons should firre. That it was againe reported how the laide Sovernoir of M&z had intelligence with the Caroinall Archand, the laid Governoir being lone what littpeared by the Ring. And it was thought that the laid Cartinall had refolged on that enterpole making their outwardle as if he purpoled to allault some other place. That his Fighnesses Savoy hath sent away Marinengo with other Captaines and all the sommen, towardes Camberi, where the whole Armie should assemble, it being held so, certain that the warre shal continue, however the truce be velonged

They write from Lyons the 14. of this prefers moneth that Diguiere and the Concernor of la Franche Concer did meete together and after conference determined that the faid Diguiere should make roots into Savoy and Piemont, the Baron of Luz into la Franch Concee and that Mounfieur du Perault should scoture the countrey about to Monezelo. Although that the forces of Savoy together, with the nide sent from Millan, did exceed their number. They write from Paris, that the laing was still at S. Germans, purposing immediatlic after be had cleared himselfe, to goe but the Tamps in Picardie, which consistent of a thousand for men and 1500, house besides as manie more which are to come with the king.

They write from Marfiglia that those inhabitants were all mooned with the newes of Cachastrasse, and bid there fore builde a fort oner against it to beat and reduce it again to their fubication.

Welle are advertised by letters from the sea that the Clarrisimo Pasqualigo, Captaine of the Gulfe hathtaken three Eurkith Hopfis and two Brigandines being part of those that spoild the ship Sylvestra. The Eurkey were all put to the swaps; and it is reported that they found above from thousand Crownes in ready coone and much of that manchandize which was abough the saide bein which together with the money that remains to the said brigner Rasquelleo and two Captaines of two other Gallies, which at that time were with him.

They write from Alba Iulia, that the Turkish power both dayly increase fotwards Danuby, that they are now allready liftic thousand strong, and have built a Bridge, so tishich cause the Transilhanian made all provision necessarie, doubting greate inconvenience, if the Turkes should bend their source against him, and his success be some in comming.

inall

n bo

hab

es if inb

an

the

that tgeb

neth

Dib

t the ont.

-min

lon-

the

ozite

rpas

onto fort,

nere

ere

ain

Clar-

hair.

hofe at to mar, ther digo They write from Milane the 28.01 this present moneth, that they have intelligence from Spaine, how the Catholick king is in perfect health and gone to Escurial. That the Carle of Fuences both with all villigence prepare sor warre. That the king of Fez is in arms against the Spaniard, and bath layer siege to Centa. That the Duke of Savoy make promision to withstande Dighera, who was comfelled by Monsieur Iacob late being returned from Paris, that he should promide sor warre, because the Souldiers of Don Alsonso de Aualos were not yet gone, but would tarrie certaine dayes at the said Dukes request.

From Venice the 6. of June, 1197.

Conftammople of the Gricke Patriarche Beath, in this letters from Conftammople of the Gricke Patriarche Beath, in this letters be of Alexandria a Grecian alle thall fluxed, with condition that he labour for a peace with the Gurperour, the Transiluanian and Michael the Voinoide of Vallachia.

They write from Genou the 24. of the last moneth, how the Galley Moyall with others, mente tomardes Poggio, there to take in the Prince Doris, who was on the Afternith bay to bepart for Sprine.

There came letters from Vicron, bearing bate like wife the 24.bay, bow the Chiffians going by night to Totta three votor 1 of the gates, and so taking it, field all the Chirkes Lirikes within. Whereopon new providen was made of men and munition for the kieping of that place, being a verie fitte pallage from Buda to Albaregale. They fignific also how the Siculy offered the Prince of Transhuama, that if he would graunt them their their auncient Lie bertie, that then they would also him with listene thous sand men, alledging that the cause of their returns to the obscience of that house, whereof the said Princes Wife both linneally bescend, is to eschewe the daungers which are likely to ensue of the wars.

They write from Tautinio, that Dighera, besides his greate preparations so, warre, bath lenied a new size thousand men more in Doulphine, and in Burgoine a farre greater number. So, which cause (as they signific from Millain) the buke of Savoy bath most earnessly intreated the Constable that he should not send away the trouves in to Flaunders.

It is farther reported that they of Ciambric Did mutiue and refused to have Souldiers in their houses.

They write from Maringlia, that the Duke of Guile was at high wordes with certaine Lordes of Prouence: There-bypon the Barliament of Aix, undertakt to pacific and as arre them .

They write from Craconia, that there are great forces fent duply to the fourties of Hungary, and lifteene thousand botteness into readynes to march into Tolchois, toppor four neto all pictions of the Transiduanian between thousand the from breetheen Battori; there are some controuces lies ne folly spring: But Malaspina the Popes Nuncio sought by all meanes to accorde them. The foolign Curperior is yet white; contract to the sound expect, but true it is, that he was even at the point of being. There was south that and allow the sent of the fourty of the fourth of the first first presents and office of ayou against the Curie, who hath of late greatly molested him by stirring by against hims station the the fanour of one lobo intente to faccabe in that kings bome after the faide Enwerage bifceaffe.

There came letters from Paris, bearing date the tivelis of the last moneth, which signistes that the king did on the same day depart towards Picardie, Monsseur Tremoulle being in the field with 1500. Hopse, and 2000, softenen les wish out of Poistou. That there doe daily resort into his Matestie great sorces from all parts of the kingdom, where by it is thought the number of his armie will amount to thirty thousand sighting men all French, besides the Dwitzers, English, Scottish, and Dutch, which he will have in pay: so that the warre will now be greater then ever it was. Corfo is gone into Languedock to assault the Sparmarbs from the side of Perpignan. The Marquesse du Pont is at the Courte about his mariage with the laings sifter, which together with a humbreth other chiese personages. Should become Catholick.

The newes from Sicill is, that in some posts of that Island certains Venezian thips were stayde to be sent into Spaine with men, Biscots and other provisions, but of which said shippes the great part of the Parriners sled, betaufe they would not be employed in that boyage.

There are farther newes from Vienna, that the surprise of Tata was atthieued by Signior Polfi, who having lest there a thousand Souldiers so desence of the said place, went to town himselse with Nadasdi and other principall Captaines, whose number will be in all eight thousand someone, and two thousand horse, all olde Souldiers, with which power and other forces that daily resorte unto them, the saide Captaines purpose to undertake some other enterprise, before the enemy shall have assembled his whole armie, which he cannot do before the 24. of July. That there were sent many spies from Vienna to certaine Tillages, and about a hundresh more of the chiefest of the relations Bores were put to death.

Before the time humaneth futeunen which were knownth hither the other bay by Todino, there are come the bine weth more, leagen by Conte V godone Rangone, who are on the men fibe, and must be fent to the Generall Beinbo into Dalmara, buleffe this mott excellent Benate fall otherwise betermine.

They ingite from flaunders, that those of Amiens have put furth of the Wolwine to the number of erght humbreth momen and chiloren, by reason of some wante of biquals, and that they might the better baincout.

They reporte get farther from Vienna, that the Garris fons of Comar and Vinar topming themselnes, make a robe within epght myles of Buda, and wone a place called Feluar, killing many Turkes, and taking tipentic puloners, lobich place baning fached they fet on fire.

That Simor Polis Lientenant in Strigonia hab fent buto him a Eurke who was taken with letters about him. That at the infining of Tatta they toke the Begh and other principall Turkes . That they have intelligence from Transpluania, boin that people hath graunted to the Pzince foure flazence of enery boule.

They write from Milane that Don Alfonio de Aualos his trupes began to marche through flaunders tomardes Sauve, and that the Duke thereof would have no longer frace inity france bulefle it were to troom this years, but either ablance police or warre, because their hout prolongings oil put his fragment to as great charges, as he thous be at an acisar of warre: inherefuse be made great preparation, as oil also Dighera on the other libe.

FINIS.

